OBJECTION TO ORDER

Edward T. Kennedy, hereinafter "Kennedy and/or "Plaintiff", is one of the people of Pennsylvania, and in this court of record objects to the document titled "Order" dated July 2, 2018, signed by Joseph F. Leeson, the assigned Judge to this case on behalf of the Court, and wishes the assigned Judge to resign from office.

TAKE JUDICIAL COGNIZANCE

Kennedy reveres the American rule of law, the common law, which was taught to Politics majors at St. Francis de Sales, now called DeSales University. In a court of record, a judge has no discretion. Discretion is reserved to the independent tribunal. When the word "law" is used without qualification, it means common law.
